COMPANY OVERVIEW

Kenyeri Engineering & Manufacturing is a woman owned small business based out of Downers Grove, Illinois. We provide total workholding solutions, taking a workholding application from chuck specification through design and fabrication of jaws, locators, plates, drawbars and more. Our team blends engineering expertise with customer focus, listening to your plant's concerns and objectives. We start with the Part. We proudly offer Seoam workholding products for many machining applications and also design custom solutions.
